Parents must pay the days reserved for their children. Also, for the days their child is absent due to illness or parent vacation. Parents must pay for the days the child is refused due to the child’s health.

Additional fees per child may be requested for special activities or educational outings.

Late fees are charged when parents pick up their child after the daycare facility’s hours. Method of Payment

Childcare fees are payable every second Thursday. Daycare fees can only be paid by direct debit from a bank account. Parents authorize this withdrawal by signing the service agreement and the attendance sheet every month.

The daycare services do not offer credit. If the automatic withdrawal is returned (NSF) a fee of $25 per week is applied if these payments are late. This payment must be paid in cash. The ECC management reserves the right to refuse childcare services to parents who exceed 3 overdue payments per year.
