WORKSHOP | Saying Hello

Dear parents,

Today I met a new friend. He's a cheerful little mouse called Minipally. My teacher introduced him to me, and he came up to me very gently and smiled, so as not to frighten me. When I smiled at him, he said "Hello!" to me. He likes it when I wave hello with my hand. Little by little, I'll learn to say "Hello" and "Good-bye" like you and Minipally.
